

Jake Reichbart, musician, and the University of Michigan

For more than twenty years, Jake Reichbart has been providing live music to the University of Michigan for a wide variety of functions. As a soloist, as well as bandleader, Jake Reichbart has performed for many of the University's departments on all campuses. Below, some of these past performances are listed. Mr. Reichbart has also performed numerous private events at university venues such as The League and The Union where he is listed as a preferred vendor. Contact information for references is available upon request. The events are listed from oldest to most recent.

University hospital cafeteria lunchtime series-

For eight continuous years (up until 2008), once a month at the hospital cafeteria as a guitar/sax duo

University hospital Lobby series (Gifts of Art program)-

For the past eighteen years, 2-3 times a year as a solo guitarist or with trio. The most recent, at the time of this writing, on December 10, 2015, Klezmer Trio.

University hospital Courtyard series (Gifts of Art program)-

For the past fifteen years, every summer, providing several bands in a variety of styles: Equinox, Five Guys Named Moe, The Lunar Octet, Trio Metro, The ABZ orchestra and others. On 8/31/05, for an employee appreciation day, the Jake Reichbart quintet performed, over a period of six hours, for an estimated crowd of 10,000 guests

University hospital Cancer Center-

For two years, early 2000's, once a month as a solo guitarist in the lobby as well as infusion center and patients rooms

University hospital, Department of General Medicine-

For two years, 2004 and 2005, holiday party in December

University hospital, Department of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery-

June 2004, CJ Lyons Endowed Resident Graduation, music featuring the Jake Reichbart Trio

Department of Natural Resources-

Reception for Al Gore held at the League, music featuring the Jake Reichbart Trio

University of Michigan Museum of art-

February 2004, Opening night of the Changing Garden Exhibit, as solo guitarist

Institute for social research-

For the past sixteen years, every first Friday in June for the Summer Program Celebration

University of Michigan, Flint-

For twelve years, starting in the early 90's, on occasional basis for the office of student life at a variety of functions and locations on campus, as a soloist as well as various bands

University Musical Society-

Occasional events, such as in December 2002, in an event honoring world renowned classical guitarist Christopher Parkening as well as in January 2004, joining the University Symphony for the grand reopening of the Hill Auditorium

Continued---

Street Art Fair Stage (near Burton Tower) Sponsored and programmed by University Musical Society in association with WEMU-
July 2004 as solo guitarist

University of Michigan, Dearborn-
Twice for the concert series at the Henry Ford estate with Five Guys Named Moe

University of Michigan Athletic Department-
For three years providing a variety of bands for post-game celebrations

University of Michigan Medical School, Program in Biomedical Research-
For two years, for the Graduate Student Fall Gathering as solo guitarist

Michigan Music Education In-Service Conference at the U of M-
January 2004 through 2008, Annual New Horizons Tour & Travel Customer Reception, presenting the Jake Reichbart Trio

Michigan League Underground, Michigan union Eclipse and North Campus Commons-
Over the past fifteen years, for a wide variety of student body events, numerous engagements with a variety of bands

Various parent/student and "welcome week" events-
Several engagements with a variety of bands

University of Michigan Hospital department of Radiology/Oncology-January 2007, Annual department holiday party held at the Henry Ford Museum with The Jazz Company, a 7-piece dance band performing for 500 guests

Life Science institute-September 2006, annual dinner at Inglis House, solo guitar

University of Michigan Nanotechnology Institute for Medicine conference-September 2006, 5 piece band for reception plus solo guitar recital during presentation at the new life science building

Department of Electrical engineering and Computer science at the U of M-
WODES 2006 conference and banquet, 4 piece jazz band with vocals at the Michigan League

Mechanical Engineering-
Holiday party on December 9, 2009, solo guitar

School of Social Work-
Holiday party on December 17, 2009, solo guitar

IEEE Great Lakes Technology Symposium-
At the Michigan League, September 16, 2010, solo guitar

University Events Planners-
A member for 10 years and performing many of their events, most recently the UEP holiday party on December 8, 2010

Continued---

Office of Technology Transfer at the U of M-

North Campus facility grand opening event with U of M president Mary Sue Coleman, January 18, 2011, solo guitar

Mhealthy Health and Well Being Services, University Of Michigan-

Mhealthy Expo event, February 3, 2011 at the Michigan League, as well as the Dow Auditorium, Lobby in the UM Towsley Center, February 9, 2011, both solo guitar

Electrical Engineering-

Annual Faculty Dinner, February 12, 2011, the Jake Reichbart trio

Office of Technology Transfer at the U of M-

"Celebrate Invention" event, October 19, 2011, solo guitar at the Michigan League, solo guitar

U of M College of Engineering, ADUE event, cocktails

Rackham Auditorium, November 8, 2011, solo guitar

Program in Biosciences "recruiting social hour" event

Hill Auditorium, February 2, 2012, Jake Reichbart duo

U of M Law School, dinner with Associate Justice Elena Kagan

Inglis House, September 12, 2012, solo guitar

University of Michigan Transportation Research Institute

Conference dinner at the Michigan League, June 11, 2013, Jake Reichbart trio

Office of Technology Transfer at the U of M-

"Celebrate Invention" event, repeat performance in 2013, 2014, solo guitar at the Michigan League, solo guitar

Dept. Of Learning Health Sciences at the Medical School

Holiday party two years running, December of 2014 and 2015 at "Mediterrano"

In addition, Mr. Reichbart has performed many UEP related events such as the UEP holiday party, the AACVB annual breakfast, as well as private events held at U of M facilities such as weddings, award ceremonies, etc. at The League, Union, the Matthaei Botanical Gardens and countless other offices and auditoriums.

To contact Jake Reichbart by phone/text, dial 734 223 0385 (cell) or 734 996 1893 (home).

Email jake.reichbart@gmail.com.

Please also visit www.jakereichbart.com or <http://www.youtube.com/user/yourweddingguitarist> for more info and video demos.